World Book Day!

On Thursday 7th March 2024 we celebrated World Book Day at Bankside Primary School! This day is not about dressing up as our favourite book characters (although this is really fun!), it is about promoting a love of reading amongst our pupils and celebrating the joy that reading a brilliant book can bring. A huge thank you to all our staff for planning exciting and engaging activities for the children to enjoy—a great day was had by all involved! A special shout out must go to Mrs James for her work as Literacy Lead to promote reading across our school!
