This is an exciting opportunity to work with our children in Year 2-6 (aged 6-11), supporting a Deaf child 1:1 in class and small group interventions. The successful candidate will work with teachers to implement advice from the Deaf and Hearing Impairment Team and support several children across school with hearing aids.

This role is a temporary maternity cover, and will involve leading small group intervention groups.

Bankside is a large and thriving 3 form-entry Primary School in Harehills. Ofsted say: 'Pupils are keen to show how they aspire to be their 'Bankside best.' Leaders have high ambitions for all pupils in the school. Everyone works together to adhere to the 'golden rules' so they create a sociable school'. (Ofsted Jan 2020).

'In lessons, pupils, including those who are disadvantaged and those with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND), work hard and enjoy their learning. Parents and carers know their children are happy and safe'. (Ofsted Jan 2020).

Do you want to be part of a school where:

We work hard to secure the 'Bankside Best' outcomes for our children and community.

We want our children to shine, to be articulate, confident and socially aware from the very start of school.

We support our colleagues through ongoing CPD to continually develop their skills and expertise.

Look at our web site to see more information about our school at www.banksideprimary.org - there is always lots going on and you will be amazed at how much our children do and achieve.

- Be able to support children with appropriate interventions that have a positive impact on learning
- Have high expectations of behaviour and achievement
- Be able to work under guidance of the teacher with small groups or whole classes
- Be first aid trained, or if not, prepared to be attend the appropriate training and administer first aid as required

We can offer:

- An exciting opportunity to work within a successful and dynamic primary school.
- Friendly and supportive staff team
- Excellent CPD opportunities
- Friendly and inquisitive children, who are keen to learn

Leaders have created a school that is an integral part of the community. They recognise the richness and benefits of serving a diverse community. Staff are very positive about the school. They feel valued. Leaders provide care and support for staff. All staff have high aspirations for their pupils." (Ofsted Jan 2020).

At Bankside, we are passionate about celebrating the diversity of our children, families and staff community. We value the experience and contributions of people from all walks of life. We promote diversity and want a workforce which reflects the population of Leeds.
